++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry with sunny spells before rain arriving overnight.

Today:
A chilly start with fog patches in places. Sunny spells for most throughout the day with cloud building from the south later. Breezy in the far southwest with the odd shower too. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Largely cloudy with clear spells west of the region during the evening. Rain showers, heavy at times, will pass over the region from the southwest overnight. Potential fog for some. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Wednesday:
Cloudy with outbreaks of rain, heavy and times, and perhaps the odd rumble of thunder too. Fog likely forming overnight and, generally, feeling mild with light winds. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Remaining cloudy into Thursday with some light rain at times. Turning dry and bright on Friday and Saturday. Feeling colder from Friday with a risk of frosts forming overnight.
